

Portfolio Manager's comments

Bitcoin dominance started the month at 48.4%, reached a low of 42.3%, high of 48.6% and ended at 42.4%.

Bitcoin started the month at $42,236 and traded between $37,458 and $50,482 to close at $47,167 up 11.68% for the month. Genesis Block Fund was up 28.83%. We initiated the month with an ETH overweight position with high expectations for EIP 1559 kicking in on the Ethereum blockchain which happened on August 5th on block # 12965000 below that will go into the history books. ETH yearly inflation rate dropped from 4.2% to 2.6% after the fork and is expected to be negative following a successful merge to POS. Follow the impact of EIP 1559 ETH burn and projected ETH supply in time. Over 150k ETH (>$500mm) has been burned over the past 3 and a half weeks helping it substantially outperform BTC.

We had a tense second week with the discussions of how the US Senate would treat the crypto space within Biden's Infrastructure plan. Our friends at Galaxy Digital put a great summary in the table below.

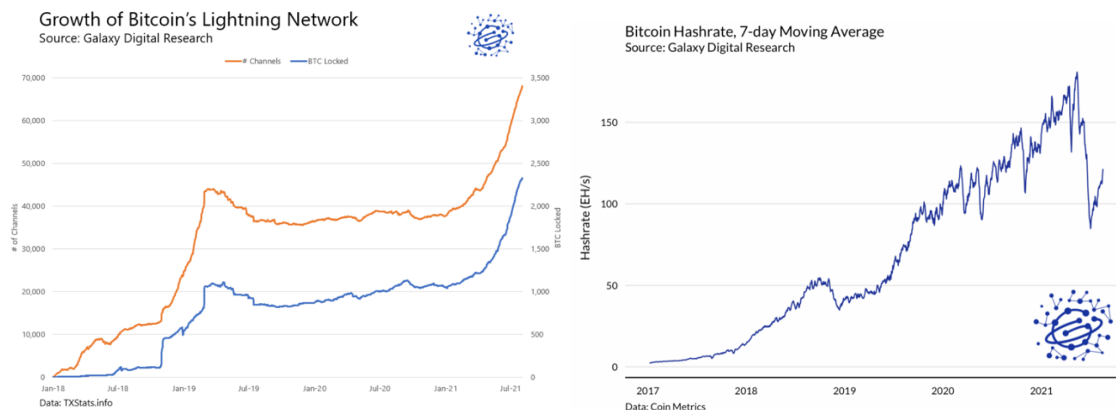

Market barely felt the impact of the largest hack ever on a DeFi protocol, Poly Network. $611mm were stolen in this massive hack, you can follow the hackers ETH wallet black-marked, on the following day \$256mm returned to the protocol and he continued returning funds. Good that the blockchain is fully transparent and traceable.

We added some KEEP which performed well (+63.7%) and we were able yet again to generate nice trading gains by taking advantage of the high volatility against BTC. We continued to increase our position in Solana, now is the fund's third biggest position and it had another amazing month, many are calling it the Solana Summer. Solana has been getting a lot of attention lately with more developers and projects being built on it, great write up on SOL for those that want to learn more. Polygon (+25.3%) is our second asset in the fund that is going through a merger, this one with Hermez. We decreased slightly our BCH underweight for a short-term trade. Our main underweights (BCH +15.2% and LTC 17.7%) performed slightly better than BTC during August. Our best performing assets were SOL (+234.8%) followed by DOT (+98.7%).

Square announced that it had $2.7 billion of revenue from Bitcoin on 2Q21 that generated $55mm of gross profits or 3x yoy. It also announced the $29 billion acquisition of Afterpay in Australia that has 16 million customers. Coinbase 2Q21 results surged to $2.23 billion in revenue and $1.6 billion in net profits and it announced it would invest 10% of its profits in crypto. Dan Morehead from Pantera Capital had a great Investment Letter discussing ESG, the media focusses a lot on the "E" (Environmental) aspect but forget to discuss the "S" (Social) and the "G" (Governance) aspect which has the potential to benefit lives of billions of people.

On the tech side, we continue to be amazed how LN has been growing exponentially and glad to see BTC hash power recuperating rapidly as miners re-located after China bans, see Galaxy Digital's charts below.

On the Regulatory front SEC Chairman Garry Gensler wants more crypto oversight to protect investors. He gave a lengthy speech at the Aspen Security Forum. There are currently 12 Bitcoin ETF proposals at his desk, so the pressure is clearly growing for the SEC to decide how they want to move forward with crypto regulation. At the same time a CFTC Commissioner claimed that the SEC has no authority over cryptos, Brian Quintenz wrote "Just so we're all clear here, the SEC has no authority over pure commodities or their trading venues, whether those commodities are wheat, gold, oil....or crypto assets." After a lot of noise, US lawmakers narrow US Infrastructure Bill requirements for crypto tax reporting in regards to what they define as brokers. South Korean Financial Service Commission is setting an independent bureau that will address all crypto related issues. Japan's FSA will strengthen its regulations on cryptocurrencies to protect investors.

Interesting announcements/comments:
